

Call for MA Exchange

The Hebrew University of Jerusalem and the Freie Universität Berlin, within the framework of the Berlin-Jerusalem Initiative to Enhance Cooperation in the Social Sciences, sponsored by the Einstein Foundation at Berlin, invite two graduate (MA) students from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem in the fields of International Relations and European Studies (affiliated with the Department of International Relations and/or the European Forum at the Hebrew University) to apply for a Semester-exchange at the Freie Universität Berlin, during the Winter term of 2012 (from Mid-October 2012 to mid-February 2013). Students will take graduate courses in English in Berlin as part of their regular studies at the Hebrew University (courses taken for credit).

Eligible students will receive a fellowship of 3,400 euro to cover their travel, accommodation, and expenses during the Winter term (equivalent to the Hebrew University Fall term) of 2012-2013.

In order to apply for the MA exchange, prospective candidates should submit the following items:

- Application form (can be downloaded from www.ef.huji.ac.il)
- Updated CV
- Record of academic studies
- List of publications (if relevant)
- A letter of intention and/or statement of purpose with respect to the MA exchange
- One letter of recommendation from a Faculty staff of the Hebrew University

An international committee, composed by Faculty members of both Hebrew University and the Freie Universität Berlin will decide about the selection of the two candidates.

The Deadline for application will be March 15, 2012. The nomination by Hebrew University will take place by April 15, and the acceptance by Freie Universität on May 1, 2012.

The material should be sent in 5 hard copies and by e-mail to the European Forum at the Hebrew University, Building of the Faculty of Humanities, Mexico Wing, room 1742.
